[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO SEPT. 27.

EASTERN STATES.

The Baltimore Commercial Convention.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 26.—In the National Commercial Convention to-day James H. Wise of San Francisco was admitted as a delegate from California.

The Washington Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The Commissioners, under the Treaty of Washington, with the agents and counselors of both sides, had an informal meeting at the Department of State to-day.

The Secretary of the Treasury to-day confirmed Collector Casey's appointment of 23 clerks, weighers and laborers in the New Orleans Custom House.

Trial of Paymaster Hodge.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 26.—The court martial for the trial of Paymaster Hodge convened at Fort McHenry to-day. The prisoner through counsel pleaded guilty to all the charges. The sentence will not be known until promulgated by the War Department.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Thirteen men implicated in the thefts from the West End Watch Factory, were before Judge Randolph this morning. Sentence was suspended and they were discharged.

The steamer Hambolds was detained at quarantine, having, as reported, a case of cholera on board. She will be disinfected.

Powder Explosion.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Sept. 26.—An explosion took place at Rand's powder mill, four miles west of here, to-day. One man was killed. Loss, $10,000.

Minnesota State Fair.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 26.—The State Fair is a grand success. Two thousand five hundred entries were made up to this morning. There is a large attendance to day, which will greatly increase until Saturday.

The buildings of the Minneapolis fair grounds were destroyed by fire last night; loss heavy.

Massachusetts Politics.

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 26.—The Republican returns show the election of 1,061 delegates to the State Convention at Worcester; 432 are for Butler, and 629 against him; majority over Butler, 197. Three figures allow Butler the Springfield delegation, and nearly every other contested case.

WORCESTER, Sept. 26.—A committee of conference of the friends of Washburne and Loring has been appointed to bring about a union of delegates against Butler. The returns as carefully revised, show a clear majority against Butler of over 50.

WORCESTER, Sept. 27—1 A. M.—Since the adjournment of the Conference Committee, the confidence of the supporters of Butler has much decreased, as the committee positively announce that they will certainly agree on a candidate who will be able to rally the delegates opposed to Butler. One report points to Dawes as the man likely to be agreed upon, while in other quarters it is rumored that Gov. Claflin will be the nominee.

New York Republican Convention.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 26.—Alfred White will probably be temporary, and J. A. Griswold permanent Chairman of the Republican State Convention, but the leaders evince a purpose to try and conciliate and harmonize. The present intention is to present three propositions relative to the local contest in New York. The 1st, to endorse and sustain the State Committee's action in organizing the party; the 2d, to authorize the State Committee to perfect said organization, thus providing means for covering any exhausting defects and for completing the enrollment of all Republicans of either wing; and the 3d, if this be accepted by the Greeley-Fenton men on equal terms to representation in the Convention, the Administration men believe they can carry the first two propositions without the vote of either city delegation.

WEST INDIES.

Effects of the Recent Storm.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Sept. 26.—On the island of Antigua every estate was injured by the recent storm. A Coolie vessel, from India to Martinique, has been lost on the coast of that island. Two hundred bodies were washed ashore.

The cattle disease is raging in Barbadoes.

SOUTH AMERICA.

General News.

KINGSTON, Sept. 26.—The steamer from Aspinwall brings Lima dates to September 2d.

The Peruvian war steamer Independence has been ordered South to bring the President's brother. The President proposes to retire with all the candidates having the least chance. All agreed except Prado, who demanded that the President's brother should become Umpire. The press claims that Prado's election is certain. Fears of a revolution are entertained. Several persons have been arrested.

A destructive fire occured at Callao. One person was killed.

The Italians will celebrate the occupation of Rome at Valparaiso.

The Exequatur of the American Consul at Talcahuas has been withdrawn.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Ex-Queen of Spain.

PARIS, Sept. 26.—Ex-Queen Isabella has summoned a number of Spanish Grandees to a conference for the purpose of effecting a reconciliation between the elder and junior branches of her house.

English Affairs.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—Gladstone arrived at Aberdeen to-day, and was presented with the freedom of the city. At Music Hall, in the presence of thirty thousand citizens, he made a speech in response, thanking them for the welcome. The Government found the Irish question difficult, but he hoped to solve it.

Disraeli, at a banquet at Hurgdon, proposed an address to the Queen, and accompanied it with a speech of fervent eulogy on Her Majesty. Her duties, he said, are excessive, and no English subject was under such complete control of political traditions of the country as its sovereign.

From Baden Baden.

BADEN BADEN, Sept. 26.—The Queen of Denmark is here on her way to Athens. She received a visit from the Empress Augusta to day.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Weather continues warm and cloudy.

E Berthiest, the inventor of explosive bullets for muskets and pistols, which both Communists and Versaillists charged the others with using in the last seige of Paris, will give an exhibition of the effect of his invention in the presence of a committee of military men at the Bay District Agricultural Park at 3 P. M. to-morrow. He recently arrived here from Paris. It is claimed that his invention has been adopted by the Russian Government for army and navy use.

The drawing of the Gross Valley Lottery has been postponed to November 15th, the managers having determined to give the full list of prizes without abatement.

The stock excitement continues and promises to run high for some time to come. Last evening after the Board Ely fell back on the street to 85, but this morning it appears to be stiff again.

OREGON.

John F. Miller and others, as we learn from their organ at Salem, have incorporated the "Klamath Lake Irrigating and Manufacturing Company,"—the object being to construct a canal from the lower end of big Klamath Lake, to terminate in water ditches for irrigating purposes, and to build mills, etc. The capital stock, $25,000, has been subscribed.

J. A. Waymire, Esq., of Salem, delivered an address last month on "Free Schools for Oregon," before the Marion County Teachers' Association, which has been printed in a neat pamphlet by D. M. Waite of Salem. The address shows much thought and care in preparation, and is very creditable to the author. It furnishes a valuable history of the progress of free schools, and shows what Oregon should do to perfect what has already been undertaken in this direction.

The Statesman says that the Agricultural Society are doing everything in their power to render the approaching State Fair the most pleasant, as well as the most successful one ever yet held. Ample provisions are being made to keep under foot those immense fogs of dust which hitherto have been the cause of so much grumbling. A large well has been dug for the express purpose of keeping the grounds well watered. Above the well will be a large tank which will be kept full by means of a pump, run by steam power; from this tank two sprinklers are to receive their water and are to be kept in constant operation watering the premises. So let everybody farm and gear understand that those attending the coming State Fair will not be troubled on account of the dust.

THE TERRITORIES.

Fishermen at Puget Sound are shipping dried herring to San Francisco.

A number of families from Minnesota, the plains across with wagons, arrived at Walla Walla last week, and have gone to the Palouse country.

The Washington Territory Legislature will assemble at Olympia next Monday. The Council has five Republicans and four Democrats; the House sixteen Republicans and fourteen Democrats.

The Walla Walla Union calls attention to the fact that the election law of Washington Territory reads: "Be it enacted, etc., That all white American citizens above the age of twenty-one years," etc., "shall be entitled to hold office or vote at any election in this Territory," and says that under the provisions of this section eminent lawyers hold that women are as much entitled to vote and hold office as are the men.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Dickens' Dolby has arrived in New York, preceding his English ballad and oratorio singers.

M. Thiers is said to be proud of being the central figure of an assembly in which there are eight Dukes, twenty-seven Marquises, forty-one Counts, ten Viscounts, seventeen Barons, and four hundred others of noble lineage.

On the 10th instant Alexander F. Bloheim, the oldest Mason in the United States, was buried at Fort Wayne. He joined the Order in Paris in 1806. He was ninety-five years of age, having been born in St. Petersburg in 1776.

A few days ago a Bonaparte, grand nephew of Napoleon I., married at Newport, Rhode Island, Caroline Le Roy Edgar, a grand daughter of Daniel Webster. The event was hardly noticed, even by the newspapers. How are the mighty fallen!

Woe for the aspiring daughters of this Republic. The Grand Duke Alexis of Russia, even while on his way to this country to be feted, has engaged himself to a German Princess, Mary Elizabeth of Prussia. Where now are the bright dreams of conquest over the royal but susceptible heart that were so lately indulged in? "Gone, glimmering among the things that were." Why is this thus, O, treacherous Alexis?

POLITICAL NOTES.

The recent elections have opened the eyes of the Louisville Courier-Journal. That paper says: "There is a fixed determination on the part of the majority of the people of this country that they will not only require a recognition of the last three amendments to the Constitution as de facto laws, but that, so long as there is any question about their validity, they will not permit the control of public affairs to pass from the party which is pledged to their permanent maintenance.

Is Mr. Pendleton for the new departure or against it? He says the Democratic party will "enforce obedience to the Constitution and to the Amendments," but when pressed by the Southern Bourbons, and the Western new departure men, to say whether he regards the Fourteenth or Fifteenth Amendments as really "amendments" or not, he preserves a solemn and significant silence. This fact is taken advantage of by both sections of the Democracy, and Mr. Pendleton must piecey seeing himself quoted as authority on both sides.

After inquiring of a neighbor whether it would be allowed, a worthy German lady in Sacramento accompanied her son to the polls on election day, he having just arrived at manhood, and she fearing that he might be influenced to vote the Democratic ticket. She grasped him with one hand and holding the ticket aloft for Booth in the other, proceeded to the inspector, who blandly informed her that women were not allowed the right of suffrage yet—he was sorry, etc. She hastened to say that the ballot was her son's, and his name being found on the poll list, the vote was passed into the box.

FOREIGN NOTES.

The European Assurance Company of Great Britain, whose "statement" last December, showed a surplus of $1,305,000, now confesses bankruptcy in the amount of $3,820,000. It was in the receipt of an annual income of a million of dollars, and had outstanding liabilities to the amount of nearly twenty millions of dollars.

A late number of Charivari, the Paris Punch, represented a M. de Tillancourt propounding a riddle to a number of his fellow deputies. "What is the heaviest thing in the world?" he asks. Everybody replies at once, "lead," "brass," "gold," but all are wrong. "No," says Monsieur, "the heaviest thing in the world is the state of siege, for nobody can raise it."

The project of cutting a ship canal through German territory from the North Sea to the Baltic has been again revived. According to the present plan, the length of the canal would not exceed 60 English miles, but no track has yet been fixed on, as several ports of Schleswig-Holstein claim the preference. The proposed breadth is 76 feet at the bottom and 224 feet at the waterline; the depth would be in the middle 31 feet, which would permit the largest ships to pass in safety. The government engineers estimate the cost at one million thalers.

A Chicago correspondent writes to a contemporary to correct the impression that the people of that city do not drink water as an habitual beverage. He insists, on the contrary, that they all seem to be drinking it—on a heavy wager. The engines at the water works are now pumping 28,000,000 gallons of water every twenty-four hours—or about 85 gallons to every man, woman and child in the city. And, while they are drinking and using water at this alarming rate, the Board of Public Works is erecting an additional engine which will pump 36,000,000 gallons per day. With a limited capacity for drinking, it may well be inquired what is to become of this unfortunate people? To add to their troubles they have just outside the city limits fourteen artesian wells, each one of which daily discharges an immense quantity of water.

CURRENT NOTES.

There is annually consumed in and around Philadelphia, 135,000 head of cattle, or an average of 26,000 per week. In the early winter the weekly totals rise to 40,000.

In Philadelphia, 125,000 persons are employed in not less than 6,000 manufacturing establishments. In New York 100,000 persons are employed in manufacturing establishments.

The use of slate, instead of boxwood, for engraving, is said to have been found both economical and efficient. The blocks are easily cut, will wear as well as electrotypes, furnish over 100,000 impressions without loss of detail, are not affected by oil or water, do not vary with the temperature and do not warp.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

New York Republican State Convention

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Immense crowds have left for Syracuse to attend the Republican State Convention. It was reported last night that a proposition would be made to admit both New York delegations with half to vote, each number to recognize the State Committee, to instruct the Committee which will succeed it to form an organization in the city which men of both present factions will recognize. This policy is likely to secure substantial harmony and meet the opposition of the Convention. Horace Greely sent a letter yesterday, to Gen. Cochrane, announcing his inability to be present, saying that he recognized only the original Union Republican General Committee as the legitimate and authorized representative organization of Republicans of the city.

Massachusetts Republican Convention.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 27.—The Republican State Convention organized by electing Geo. B. Loring temporary President and George S. Merrill, Secretary. On motion of Gen. Butler, the galleries were thrown open to the crowd. The number of spectators was immense. The Committee on Credentials were appointed in accordance with the programme previously laid down. Ex Attorney-General Hoar and Hon. H. L. Dawes were greeted with tremendous applause. Dawes moved that delegates be admitted who bear credentials of regular city and town Republican Committees until the Convention act upon the claims of such delegates. His speech in support of the motion was followed by Butler in the negative. Considerable excitement and disturbance occurred when Butler took the platform, shouts, hisses and groans being mingled in the floor and gallery.

A motion was made that when Butler's speech was concluded to refer.

This motion matter was considered mainly as a question of the strength of the opponents of Butler. Great interest was taken in its discussion, and the motion to refer was finally carried.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Linn County Fair.

ALBANY, Oregon, Sept. 27.—The second day of the fair opened this morning with promising weather, but turned out showery. During the day the attendance was very fair.

The opening address was delivered at 11 A. M., by T. W. Vancleve.

In the afternoon, S. Montgomery's bay team took the 1st premium for matched doubled carriage teams.

For single carriage horse, J. Welch's black horse took the 1st premium.

At 3:30 P. M., running single dash 1 mile—entered, Norfolk colt Napa, from California; Ploughboy, Snowflake, Grey Eagle. Won by Napa; time—1:57½; Ploughboy, 2d. Track very heavy.

Linn County Fair.

ALBANY, Wednesday, 7 A. M.

Owing to heavy rains there were but few articles brought in for exhibition. In the pavilion a few potatoes, cabbages, beets, turnips, onions, flowers in pots, one walking plow and a washing machine comprised the display. The vegetables aforesaid were in a healthy condition.

The live stock consisted of a number of sheep, swine and several horses. In the afternoon the running race for two year olds, mile heats, W. J. Tennant entered "Novice" and M. L. White entered "Johnny." "Novice" came in winner, his time being 2:05.

The Secretary of the Society reports the gate receipts as being larger for the first day than has been on the opening day at any former Fair.

Quite a number of people from Portland are in attendance, and each train brings fresh accessions. Our indomitable friend W. A. Daly has spread his wares conveniently to the Fair grounds, but reports business light. Visitors at the Fair can find everything to be desired for the inner man. M'lle Joal Circus, Dave Long's show, and several other institutions calculated to amuse the crowds were on the grounds the first day; but as there was heavy rains during the day the prospects were other than flattering—in fact it was impossible to open. Professor Valentine gave a performance in ventriloquism Tuesday evening at Parrish's Hall to a fair audience.

This morning opened clear and augured well for a pleasant day. Considerable disappointment is manifested at the non-arrival of Put. Smith's famous "Pathfinder." He informs me that the expense attending the transportation of that animal was too heavy, and consequently he gave up the idea of bringing him here. He will put in an appearance at the State Fair, however!

Brick Pomeroy failed to come in time, and the managers having failed to get Governor Grover, procured the services of J. W. Vancleve, Esq., brother of Col. Vancleve of the Register, to deliver the opening address this morning.

There will be an interesting race, mile heats, at 3 P. M. to-day, and everything promises well for a lively time. W.

"Do you chew tobacco?" asked a lady, hesitating to sit down by a gentleman in a car. "No, ma'am, I don't," he replied; "but I guess I can get you a chew if you want one."

How to Cure Stammering.—Lute A. Taylor, editor of the La Crosse (Wis.) Leader, who was an inveterate stammerer, writes as follows about the way to cure the habit:

No stammering person ever found any difficulty in singing. The reason of this is, that by observing the measure of the music, by keeping time, the organs of speech are kept in such position that enunciation is easy. Apply the same rule to reading or speech and the same result will follow. Let the stammerer take a sentence—say this one, "Leander swam the Hellespont," and pronounce it by syllables, scan it, keeping time with the finger if necessary, letting each syllable occupy the same time, thus: "Le-an-der-swam-the-Hel-les-pont," and he will not stammer. Let him pronounce slowly at first, then faster, but still keeping the time—keeping time with words instead of syllables, and he will be surprised to find that, by very little practice, he will read without stammering and nearly as rapidly as persons ordinarily talk or read. Then practice this in reading and conversation until the habit is broken up. Perseverance and attention is all that is necessary to perform a perfect cure.

Free Trade Logic Examined.

Nothing is more evident than the truth of the proposition that capital will seek investment where the largest profits are to be obtained. It is often asserted that a protective tariff gives a few manufacturers a "monopoly," and enables them to make enormous profits. The ready answer to this is that protective gives no man a monopoly of manufacturing, because every other man is at liberty to enter the field and compete with him. And if "enormous profits" are to be made, under the protective system, in any branch of manufacture, of course capital will be largely invested in that direction. No man or set of men can have a monopoly of a business that is open to all. Then competition between home manufacturers will ensue; so much capital will be invested in that particular line of business that the profits will inevitably be reduced to the lowest possible rates. If business experience as well as common sense does not teach this, it teaches nothing. But the Copperhead, free-trade organ says:

It will be remembered that we took the manufacture of razors to illustrate the principle of protection, and supposed Jones to be a manufacturer of razors in Connecticut; and we proved that a protective tariff gave him a monopoly.

By your leave, sir, you proved nothing of the kind. You simply made an assertion, which you did not and cannot prove. Every person knows that one man cannot have a monopoly of a business in which other men are at liberty to compete with him, and in which they certainly will compete, if there is a prospect of securing the immense profits which the organ supposes in the case of razor making. The idea that it is possible for one man to have a "monopoly" of a business which every other man is at liberty to take hold of, and is encouraged both by the law and by the promise of profits to engage in, is an idea that is worthy to have emanated from the Chair of Political Economy in Gulliver's Academy at Lagado.

The assumption then being utterly false that protection gives any one a monopoly of razor making or of any other manufacturing industry, the whole scheme of the free trade theorists, which is built on this unsound basis, falls to the ground. Now consider the advantages derived from protection. Every person sees (except your Copperhead politician, who is as blind on all the real questions of the day as the cyclops fish in the mammoth cave), that the more capital there is invested in manufactures, among us the greater is the demand for labor, and the greater the demand for labor the higher are the wages. This is the view that intelligent working people take. They know that there are countless millions of dollars in this country for investment, and that the only possible way that this capital can be made to aid the development of the country and assist working people, is by inducing its investment in manufacturing and kindred enterprises. But this capital will not seek such investments if articles of foreign manufacture are brought into this country free, because the foreign manufacturer hires labor at one-fourth to one-half the wages that must be paid here, and consequently the American manufacturer, in the absence of a tariff, cannot compete with him. The question therefore arises, namely, Is it better to have industry and wages, with protection, or neither industry nor wages, with free trade? Suppose we establish free trade and import our iron, for instance; where are all the workmen now engaged at good wages in one form of iron industry or another to find remunerative employment? Shall they go to raising agricultural products and sending them to Europe, where, it is said, they will buy more iron and clothing than they will buy here? Then when our labor is turned into the channels of agriculture there will be over production, a general fall of the prices of agricultural products, and our wheat will then buy less than it buys now.

The organ here which belongs to the party that has always tried to ruin the country when it couldn't control it, appears to oppose every kind of revenue. It doesn't want a tariff laid on any article which we now manufacture here; it condemns a tariff on tea, sugar, coffee and spices, articles which this country does not produce, or produces to a very limited extent; and it grows savage in talking about what it elegantly denominates "that swarm of vermin called internal revenue assessors and collectors." Thus it opposes every possible form of raising a revenue, probably from a sort of vague idea that it might be possible to stop all revenues and thus destroy the Government even more completely than its party once hoped to destroy it by means of Jefferson's State rights-secession theories. To rule where you can't control, is the beautiful idea always uppermost in the Democratic mind.

We give one more extract from the organ's article:

Now, when a man wants an article, has he not the natural right to go where he can supply his want at the cheapest price? Does he stop to inquire where it was made or who made it, unless, indeed, the name of the manufacturer or the place where made, is to some measure a test of its quality? If it be a proper article of trade, does it make any difference to him, where it was made? Are not the price and the quality the consideration with him? Is it right that he should be compelled, by law, to pay more than the thing is worth, in order that somebody whom he does not know and for whom he does not care, may be profited?

Suppose we apply these principles to an enactment called the Oregon litigant law. By what right does this organ compel people to advertise in its columns and pay from two to five times more therefor than they would have to pay for the same "article" elsewhere? Here is a monopoly in its most odious and oppressive sense. It is a very different thing from a protective tariff, because a protective tariff is a general law and protects alike every individual who desires to embark in any industrial enterprise. But this litigant act, is devised and framed for the especial benefit of half a dozen persons; the object of it is to give those persons an exclusive monopoly, at the most extravagant prices. In the organ's own language, we might ask, "Is it right that a man should be compelled, by law to pay more than a thing is worth, in order that somebody whom he does not know and for whom he does not care, may be profited?" This is a question asked by many who are compelled by law to pay the organ for one insertion a week of litigant advertisements, twice as much as that paper can get for ordinary business advertisements, inserted six times a week. Before that paper repeats the sentiments we have quoted above it would do well to abdicate its position as litigant organ and denounce the odious monopoly that was created by the Legislature at its behest, and for its special benefit.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—The matter of the petition of Ellen Lynch and Ann Wilson, relatives of David C. Broderick, that the Broderick will, which has already been pronounced a forgery in our Probate Court, be set aside and the sale which was made under it declared void, and the estate adjudged to belong to them as the rightful heirs, was argued at length to-day in the Probate Court, before Judge Wright. The suit is brought under the provisions of the law which gives minors and married women a year, after the removal of their legal disabilities, in which to bring suit in such cases. The defendants object to the jurisdiction of the court on the ground that the question has already been litigated, and the Probate Judge having no jurisdiction of the subject matter after a former ruling having been passed upon it, and declares that it having once been admitted to probate it could not now be set aside whatever its character for genuineness might be. In answer to this the petitioners argue that the former ruling is only binding in such cases as are free from taint and fraud. Millions of dollars are at stake in this case, and it will be further argued.

ARIZONA.

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 27.—A private correspondence dated Camp Grant, Sept. 21st, says Vincent Colliar arrived at that place on the 13th inst. Saturday an order was issued by the Department warning any party of citizens that if they approached nearer than ten miles of the post they would be fired upon by the troops. A party of prospectors from Tucson, who had traveled thirty miles without water, which could only be obtained by passing through Camp Grant to the river, were ordered off, three cannon brought out, shotted, placed in a commanding position, the long roll beaten and troops put in readiness for action. The commanding officers were fully advised by Capt. Dunn, U. S. A., Dr. Wilbur and others, that the citizens were on a peaceable mission and willing to surrender their arms or do anything to get water. They were not permitted to approach. A limited supply of water was furnished by the Post Commander, who reported that Governor Safford and party were about to come. It was declared that he would be treated the same as the Tucson prospectors had been.

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA, Sept. 27.—This afternoon, Squires and Willis, escaped convicts, were captured by officers Lackey and Downey at Ghison, Comstock & Harper, foot of seven mile canyon. They are now on their way to their old quarters.

CARSON, Sept. 27.—The Sheriff and party will arrive this evening about 9 o'clock, with two of the convicts, Squires and Willis. Six constables passed near Wellington this morning. Officers from the latter plans are in pursuit.

"From California to Maine."

"From California to Maine," observes the New York Times, is a favorite phrase to denote the extent of our continent and its extremes, not only geographically, but in point of habits and occupation. The two States are hardly less wide apart in the latter than in the former respect. But they are alike in one thing—they turn a deaf ear to the Democracy. For the past year the Democratic journals and orators all over the country have never tired of railing at the National Administration. Besides vague denunciation, which was necessarily vague because there was nothing in definite fact to base it on, they have adopted every pitiful personal slander, every idle story started by disappointed greed or foiled corruption, and in addition still to these have invented horrible bugaboos about the President's malignant hatred of free institutions, and his purpose to seize dictatorial power and crush by the bayonet. Chaff of this wretched kind has been whipped, over and over again; and blinded by the dust they have raised, the Democratic presses have been boasting of a great popular reaction against Gen. Grant and the Republican party. Well, the people have spoken at the two opposite sides of the continent, and where is the reaction? On the Pacific, the Democratic party has been tumbled heels over head out of both executive and legislative branches of the State Government, and from having two out of three of the Congressional delegation, is left without a single representative. On the Atlantic, it has been stripped of the small gains it made last year, and while straining every nerve to take advantage of the apathy of its opponents, has found the people still more indifferent to its own efforts. The Democratic party will, perhaps, learn after a few more such lessons that the great obstacle in the way of its winning popular confidence is its own bad character. Until it ceases to be reactionary, corrupt and treacherous, it will not be listened to.

The OREGONIAN was in great haste, the other day, to announce that the Government would lose nothing by the defalcation of Hodge, which amounts, as the telegraph recently informed us, to $1,250,000. The organ said, in effect, that his sureties would make all right.—Herald.

The trifling errors in the above are these, viz: First, the OREGONIAN has never stated that the Government would lose nothing by the defalcation of Hodge. Second, no telegram stating that the defalcation amounted to $1,250,000 was ever received here. The dispatches which we as well as the Herald printed put the amount at $450,000. Third, the OREGONIAN never said in effect that Hodge's sureties would make it all right. This embraces all that is stated in the above paragraph, from which it appears that there is not a true word in it. We see no reason why the Pike county editor's career shouldn't be "brilliant," if a sublime contempt for facts can make him a reputation.

The Roseburg Plaindealer has it that the Pike county editor "goes at his work with a vim that augurs for him a brilliant career in Oregon;" and the Pike county editor modestly copies the encomium. From a man who has reached the age of forty-five or fifty years and had unlimited opportunities, in a section of country where prodigious business and intellectual activity has prevailed, and is found at that time of life to have drifted off into an obscure Missouri town with nothing better to do than to run a seven-by-nine Democratic weekly paper, with a circulation of perhaps two hundred and fifty copies, something "brilliant" certainly ought to be expected.

RICH FOR A MOMENT.—An English magazine the Friendly Visitor, recently published the following:

The ship Britannia, which struck on the rocks off the coast of Brazil, had on board a large quantity of Spanish dollars as freight. They were packed in barrels, and as the ship struck a number of these barrels were brought on deck in the hope that some of them might be saved; but soon it was discovered that the vessel was sinking so very fast that the only hope for the crew was in taking at once to the boats. The last boat was about to push off, when a midshipman rushed back to see if anybody was on board. To his surprise, there sat a man on deck, with a hatchet in his hand, with which he had broken open several of the casks, the contents of which he was now heaping up about him.

"What are you doing?" shouted the youth. "Escape for your life! Don't you know the ship is fast going to pieces?"

"The ship may," said the man; "I have lived a poor wretch all my life, and I am determined to die rich."

In vain the other called him a madman, an idiot. He was answered only by a flourish of the hatchet and a satisfied nod toward the glittering heaps.

"I tell you the ship can't hold together another moment!" screamed the midshipman, looking back at him from the vessel's edge. "Quick, you can be saved!"

"Not without leaving my gold!" roared back the man, glaring wildly at him. "Go your ways!"

The boat load would wait no longer, and he was left to his fate. In a few moments no ship was to be seen—only the dark waves of the ocean, rolling sullenly over the poor-rich sailor and his gold.

An elaborate and exhaustive examination of the circumstances under which machines for the production of artificial ice can give the most favorable results, has been made by Prof. C. Sinde. Among other results, he finds that a theoretically perfect ice machine can produce three hundred pounds of ice per hour per horse power, or about one and one half tons in ten working hours, the ice being at 25° F., and produced from water at 50° F. Using three pounds of coal per hour per horse power, one pound of coal would be sufficient to produce one hundred pounds of ice; but as the most perfect ice machines show, one pound of coal produces but ten pounds of ice, the loss of the effect being nine tenths of the result theoretically possible. "It would seem from this, that the prospect of solving the problem for making ice by machinery, so that the cost of production of it may be reduced considerably below the present, is not very flattering, especially when we consider that a great part of the loss of effect is caused by circumstances which cannot be avoided."

OREGON CENTRAL RAILROAD.—The contract commenced yesterday, the work of grading extension of the West Side road, to form switches by which trains will be backed up to depot and steamship dock. This extension is be about eight hundred feet long from the nor ern end of the trestle bridge across Couch's La and is to be built up with dirt brought down road. That arm of the Y by which the depot w be reached, will run up North Front stre and will be, also, built up with dirt. took a trip yesterday afternoon to front, where the track layers and bridge builde are at work. The track is now laid to bridge N 8, about four miles from the turn table. Fr the high bridge at the head of Fourth street, grade consists of almost a constant succession bridges over deep gulches and cuts through she ridges. When express trains commence runnin on speed, the traveler will hardly fail to get th impression, as he looks from the platform, th the ground is every other instant incontinentl dropping from under him, and every alterna instant rushing up like a comet to bump the trai "as high as the sky." No. 8 bridge is said t be one hundred and five feet high—twenty fee higher than the Fourth street bridge—and No. is just about the same height. They are eac however, short and do not strike the spectator wi weakness in the knees like the Fourth stree bridge. A number of mechanics are at work up cash, and they will be made ready in a few day for the passage of the construction trains. The and two or three more finished, the work of trac laying will go on rapidly towards the plains.

SUPREME COURT DECISION.—In the case of th State vs Wiley, the Supreme Court has just re dered a decision which affects matters somewh in the Police Court of this city. Wiley was in dicted for perjury and convicted. The facts were he had testified in the Police Court, in a certai matter, while D. C. Lewis was Police Judge. Th appellant claimed that Lewis was not a Justice o the Peace; that therefore, he had no right t administer an oath in the premises, and as a con sequence the defendant could not take a fals oath. The Legislature in order to enable the Police Judge invested him with the powers of a Justice of the Peace, but endeavored to restrict the same to "criminal matters." This, the ap pellant claimed, vitiated the whole act. The re spondent claimed that these words could be stricken out. The Supreme Court sustained thi view of the case, and the consequence is that the Police Judge is a Justice of the Peace with full powers, civil and criminal, within the corporate limits of the city of Portland. Gibbs and Bur nett appeared for respondent.

METHODIST REVIVAL.—The revival of religious feeling which we mentioned a week ago as having been awakened in the Methodist Church, still continues and appears to be increasing in breadth and intensity every day. Noonday prayer and conference meetings have been held every day at the Taylor street church and religious services in the evening. These meetings, we hear, will be continued every day this week, at all events, and, possibly, longer. For several days past, the attendance at the noonday meetings has averaged seventy-five people with occasionally a much larger congregation. Over twenty persons have made public declarations of conversion, and several have been revived from backsliding. At the noonday meetings, privilege is given to all who may wish to do so, to speak of their experiences, and at one of the meetings no less than forty persons availed themselves of the privilege. Rev. Mr. Isaac, the pastor of the church, leads the services, but he is assisted from day to day by a considerable number of ministers.

"SLEEPING AND EATING."—A few days since we had occasion to warn the public that one of the Albany papers had boasted of the superior arrangements made by the Albanians for "sleeping and eating" visitors to the fair. A returned visitor rises to explain. He says that he was put between two very blankets to the cost of about a dollar worth in sleep. During the night he was ferociously attacked and "chawed" by countless bed bugs. "And, that's the way," he says, "they sleep 'em and eat 'em."

THE CHINESE HABEAS CORPUS CASE.—The matter of the habeas corpus in which are involved the alleged rights of a Chinese master, and the happiness of two celestial lovers, was brought before Judge Deady yesterday morning, when upon motion of the respondent, the hearing was postponed till next Monday morning. The woman about whom all the trouble is made was remanded to the custody of the Marshal, and is in jail.

"NEW CENSUS AND PATENT LAWS."—This is the title of a little volume issued by Munn & Co., of New York. It contains a table of the population of each State by counties, as shown by the last census; a great variety of information relating to the patent laws of the United States, rules and practice of the Patent Office, how to proceed in procuring or assigning patents, etc., and is altogether a quite useful little book.

ANKENY'S BLOCK.—Excavations were commenced yesterday morning on the southeast corner of Capt. Ankeny's block, for a brick building twenty-five by one hundred feet, fronting on First street. This building is to be completed in sixty days, unless bad weather shall intervene. Workmen are engaged in laying the foundations of the mammoth market building on the same block.

ARKELL'S BLOCK.—Excavations were commenced yesterday morning on the southeast corner of Capt. Ankeny's block, for a brick building twenty-five by one hundred feet, fronting on First street. This building is to be completed in sixty days, unless Deady says it shall intervene. Workmen are engaged in laying the foundations of the new south market building on the same block.

THE DEAD CHINAMAN.—The friends of the Chinaman, who was unfortunately shot and killed the other night by Marshal Young, while executing an official duty, were engaged yesterday in preparing the body for transportation to China. In the intervals of labor, they spent the time in howling, bewailing and tearing around generally.

HULL INSPECTOR.—M. Guthrie, the Supervising Inspector of Steamboats, Judge Deady, U. S. District Judge, and Mr. Hinman, Collector of Customs, had a meeting last night and agreed upon recommending the appointment of Captain George H. Flanders for Inspector of Hulls for the district of Oregon.

SHIPPING.—The bark Hattie O. Besse left yesterday afternoon, for St. Helens, to complete her cargo.

The bark Skiddaw is loaded and ready to sail, but we learn that there is some trouble about her having too much cargo, and hence the delay.

DEED FILED.—The deed of the late P. T. Co. to the Wallamet Transportation Company, of steamboats, warehouses, wharves, lands, etc., on the Wallamet river, was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday. It is decidedly a high-toned document.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—Mr. J. B. Montgomery, contractor on the Northern Pacific Railroad, is about to commence laying track at Kalama. Fifty white men can obtain steady employment by making application at Kalama.

EXTRA TRAINS.—This morning at half-past 7 o'clock an extra passenger train will leave the east side depot for Albany. Returning, the train will leave Albany at 5 P. M. Similar trains will run to-morrow and on Saturday.

FREE FERRY.—We hear that Barney Trainor, Esq., of East Portland, is going to run free ferry skiffs between the foot of Stark street on this side and J street on the east side the river. Guess Barney won't do it very long.

REAL ESTATE SOLD.—Mr. A. B. Richardson sold yesterday, at auction, the south half of block —, East Portland—situated on the bottom land near the railroad trestle bridge—for $500.

THE SOUTHERN MAIL.—The express train which arrived at half past twelve yesterday, brought no mail in consequence of the failure of the stage to connect at the other end of the road.

THE NEXT STEAMER.—The propeller Montana sailed at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, for Portland. She has no passengers. The Ajax is expected to sail on Saturday.

STREET CROSSINGS.—Residents who live west of Fourth street were pleased to observe yesterday that workmen had commenced to replace the foot crossings on that street.

SPREAD OF LIGHT.—The Gas Company has commenced the work of laying down gas mains on Third street, between Stark and Morrison streets.

Protection Engine Company No. 4, will ride Thursday evening at 7½ o'clock.

Old Things Have Passed Away.

This is at least true of the old method of treating the long abused and much abused human body. It is no longer considered wise to put a patient to the torture in order to cure him of a disease in which pain is already undermining the energies of his system. True science ranges itself on the side of nature, and endeavors to assist her in her fight against disease. This is the province of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most approved tonic ever advertised in this country. It may be recommended as a full medicine, par excellence; for it is to the full that biliousness, dyspepsia and malarious fevers are especially prevalent. The frame, exhausted by the heats of summer, is relaxed and feeble at its close, and requires, we may say demands artificial assistance. Afford it that assistance in or second dose of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and the evils referred to may be escaped. Throughout the far west, and on the steaming alluvial of the Southern rivers, all the varieties of periodical fever are probably rife to-day. Had a course of Hostetter's Bitters been commenced by the sufferers a month ago, i. e. before the unhealthy season set in, seven-eighths of them would in all probability be in their usual health at the present time. So much for want of foresight. So much for not keeping in the house, and using daily the best safeguard against epidemic and endemic fevers.

As flocks of impostors and imitators are trying to follow in the wake of the great American remedy, therefore be sure that the article you buy is genuine and verified by the proper trade marks. The true article can only be obtained in bottles. Beware of the spurious bitters sold by the gallon or in kegs.

The telegraph informs us of heavy losses by storm on the Island of Antigua. The product of this Island is principally Coffee and Sugar. The Sugar crop per annum is near 20,000 hhds.

The English tonnage on December 31, 1870, was 37,350 ships, measuring 7,150,841 tons, against 39,073 ships, measuring 7,192,658 tons on December 31, 1869, showing a diminution of 1,475 ships and 31,817 tons.

The average importation of Russia Sheet Iron, used principally for making stove pipes, per years, amounts to 7,000 packages of 220 lbs each. The importations from Jan. 1st to 8th, 1871, were 2,695 tons, against 2,143 tons for the same period last year. The market East is very firm, under an active demand.

There are 18 Grain and Molasses distilleries in the United States, with a daily capacity of 170,852 gallons. Compared with last year shows an increase of 14 distilleries, and an increased daily capacity of 54,391 gallons.

The following is the yield of Cotton of each State last season (1870-1) in comparison with the season of 1869-70:

	1870-71. Bales.	1869-70. Bales.
Louisiana	1,446,430	1,122,097
Alabama	404,673	300,661
Texas	321,804	246,284
Florida	13,949	221,874
Georgia	720,405	486,201
South Carolina	350,652	240,500
North Carolina	94,320	59,612
Virginia	349,368	202,698
Tennessee and balance of Cotton growing States	560,691	350,416
Total product for the year	4,251,077	3,004,948
Consumed in the South, not included in Census returns	91,240	90,000
	4,352,317	3,154,948

The following taken from the Commercial and Financial Chronicle gives the Cotton consumption for this year beginning Sept. 1, 1870, and ending Sept. 1, 1871. As implicit reliance can be given it, for future reference it is invaluable.

The very low prices which have ruled during the past season naturally resulted in increased takings by our spinners, not alone in supplying an enlarged consumption, but also to add to their stock in view of the probability that the crop of 1871-72 would be smaller. We are indebted to the statistical officers of the late National Association of Cotton Manufacturers for a statement of the quantity of Cotton the mills now have on hand compared with Sept. 1871 and Sept. 1, 1869, and from this statement it would appear that while in 1869-70 the amount taken by spinners was about 50,000 bales in excess of their consumption, and in 1869-70 about 10,876 bales less than their consumption, this year they have taken 90,750 bales more than they consumed. The other stocks they now hold 50,750 bales more stock than they did twelve months ago. Our own summary of the above crop made up from the crop figures which we have given above is as follows. It will be seen that in stating the consumption, we, of necessity, include the stocks at Providence and other points South of the Ohio and Potomac, our system of stating at the overland movement brings every bale which has crossed those rivers into our total crop.

Total crop of the United States as above stated	4,352,317
Stock on hand at commencement of year (Sept. 1):
At northern ports	19,556
At southern ports	40,193—59,757
At Philadelphia, &c., northern interior markets	16,381— 76,138
Total supply during year ending Sept. 1, 1870	4,422,445
Of this supply there has been
Exported to foreign ports during the year	2,166,742
Sent to Canada direct from the West	5,682
Burnt North and South	5,832
Now on hand (Sept. 1, 1871):
At northern ports	60,705
At southern ports	49,049—104,814
At Providence, &c., interior markets	89,475
		3,822,249
Total taken by spinners in the United States, year ending Sept. 1, 1871		1,190,196
Taken by spinners in Southern States, included in above total		91,240
Leaving for use from the crop by northern mills		1,098,956

The foregoing statement indicates that the northern mills have taken from this crop 1,098,956 bales. If we add to this the consumption in the States of the present year, the amount of stock reported from the statistical officers of the Cotton Manufacturers' Association, and which we have referred to above, we shall have the following as the actual consumption of the mills for the three years:

	1868-69.	1869-70.	1870-71.
By northern mills, bales	918,806	906,880	1,098,956
By do. do.	80,000	90,000	91,240
Total takings from crop	998,806	996,880	1,190,196
Added to mill stock during the year	50,000		80,750
Deduct stock of mill stock on hand
Total consumption	948,806	900,736	1,019,446

These tables show an increase of actual consumption this year of 100,000 bales, or 10 per cent. However, it is not 10 per cent, as in fact year's figures some deductions should be made for a difference in northern interior stocks, &c., as stated in our crop report of that year, which would leave this year's increase somewhat larger. The figures we present furnishes a very gratifying indication of the prosperity of our cotton manufacturing interest during the season which has just closed.

Breadstuffs Report.

WHEAT—No change to note in market. Buyers have very generally lowered limits to agents in the interior, but we have been unable to effect sales, which is coming to the front quite rapidly. The O. & C. R. R. Co. are running out on an average two freight cars every three days. At this rate the company will soon be able to bring forward all amounts as fast as is required. We continue our quotations for shipping lots 82 1/2@90 per coastal bushel, for fair to choice, without sacks. 142,160 centals.

FLOUR—Market a shade firmer, with a few small sales for home trade. The Chehalis Shepherd will receive for San Francisco several large invoices to-morrow. We continue quotations at former rates for standard brands. Rates $7 @ bbl., superfine $6@6.75 @ bbl.

OATS—To-day yesterday's quotations should have been. For extra choice, in rolls, 30@35 cts @ lb.; for choice in rolls, 25@30 cts. @ lb.; for fair to choice in rolls, 23@30 cts. @ lb.; for feed, 20@25 cts. @ lb.

BOOTS & SHOES.—Assortments well sustained, demand very active at current rates. By favor of Messrs. J. Noble & Co. we are enabled to give the following quotations as some (as their full list is too long) of their leading specialties: Men's French calf ins. & 13 pegs, assorted 6 doz. sewed $105@108; French Kip, riding, do $78; lumber sam, Milford standard, Prairie, Walnut, Bark, do $84@90; Kip, do $84@90; Kip, heavy, do $84@90; Kip, medium, $81 @ doz. Ladies' kid fox quilted balmorals, $7@8 per doz.; calf, quilted or screwed, $36 @ doz.; Buff, $42@51; French Kip balmorals, $27 @ doz. The above are quotations of first quality, ladies quality of French lasts.

CROCKERY—The market is fairly active and prices strong.

The New York Shipping List says:—

The inquiry for Cotton in this line is somewhat greater, but there is not the activity which is usual at this season of the year. Prices are firm, because importers cannot succeed in the purchase of prices without sales. Stocks are not large, but ample for present wants, though no goods are scarce at the moment. TO THE UNFORTUNATE,

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual & Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (unless standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals in Europe, and has resumed practice at his old stand, Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those wishing his advice may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in procuring the latest new remedies and best facilities for the alleviation of

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of young males, and there who are in both male and female, are there who are suffering from the effects of secret habits indulged in the early part of life, which they are not aware of, and which blight their prospects in after years, rendering them unfit for the enjoyment of life, and unfitting them for the duties of husband and father? Such persons should consult the Doctor immediately, before the fatal consequences of their early indiscretions overtake them, and they are hurried to the grave. Many a young man falls a victim to this terrible disease, supposing that he has only a slight attack of gonorrhœa or gleet, which he thinks will soon pass away, but which, in reality, is the first symptom of that most horrible disease, Stricture, which, if not immediately attended to, will undermine the constitution, and render marriage or business of any kind a source of misery instead of happiness. Persons who have committed an indiscretion, or who are suffering from the effects of improper treatment by ignorant pretenders, should consult the Doctor immediately, before the fatal consequences of their early indiscretions overtake them, and they are hurried to the grave.
